LETTER FROM THE CHIEF

The year 2019 was a big year that saw the department grow and prepare for the future. Together, we welcomed many changes, not only within the members and leadership of the department, but also within the way we provide police services to the citizens of Gwinnett County. Some of our notable successes from the year included:

- Through an increased focus on crime analysis and training focused on preventing crime, the department saw lower crime rates in homicides, robberies, rapes, burglaries, and vehicle thefts.
- Our Crime Prevention Unit worked with residents and businesses to offer a wide variety of classes focused on education and the prevention of crimes. The department offered 861 crime prevention programs that were attended by 43,045 attendees.
- The department held two sessions of the citizens police academy. Each session graduated knowledgeable citizens, many of whom plan to serve the county in a variety of volunteer positions for years to come.
- Our volunteer program delivered a total of 5,818.70 volunteer hours for police support valued at $144,969.54.
- On August 19, the department took delivery of a new MD530F aircraft costing $3.2 million with an additional $1 million in law enforcement equipment.
- Hiring top quality officers has remained a top priority for the department. In 2019, we hired 134 police officers and held hiring events in Florida, Ohio, Massachusetts, and Michigan.

One of the biggest changes in 2019 included the retirement of Chief Butch Ayers. Chief Ayers served the citizens of Gwinnett County honorably for 35 years, five of which were as chief. Chief Ayers' contribution to the success of this department cannot be measured and is greatly appreciated by everyone who worked with him. As the new chief, I'm looking to build upon the great foundation that this department has worked so hard for. Together, I believe that we will continue our tradition of being one of the most premier law enforcement agencies in the country.

This year also saw the activation of the Bay Creek precinct on December 14. This precinct shows that we are focused on continued growth and are expanding the ways that we can better serve Gwinnett County. As we continue to grow, we will plan for new and innovative ways to build upon the success that we have seen.

Tom Doran
Chief of Police

Therefore, the Department has established DUI enforcement as a high priority. Officers of this Department shall make every effort to detect and apprehend impaired drivers and shall be alert at all times for indications of DUI impairment in all contacts with motorists.

The DUI Unit's primary responsibilities are that of the detection and apprehension of the DUI impaired driver. The DUI Unit is also responsible for selective traffic enforcement, traffic complaints, special details, and other special operations as deemed appropriate by the Special Operations Commander.

K-9 Unit

Recognizing the superior scenting abilities, keen eyesight, advanced hearing capabilities, and the ability to deter crime with his sheer presence, the trained canine is a valuable asset to the law enforcement community. Canine (K-9) teams are available to the Department on a 24-hour, on-call basis to track suspects and lost and/or missing persons, to locate hidden evidence of a crime, to search for suspects who are attempting to avoid arrest, to protect the public and police officers from death or injury, to prevent the escape of felons or violent offenders, and to detect the presence of a narcotic substance as well as explosive materials.

Motor Unit

The Motor Unit is responsible for selective traffic enforcement, traffic complaints, special details, and other special operations as deemed appropriate by the Special Operations Commander.

Officers assigned to the Motor Unit conduct traffic enforcement duties as specified in the General Directives Manual. Selective enforcement is based on citizen complaints and traffic crash data.

Special Weapons and Tactics Team/Hazardous Device Unit

It is the intent of the Gwinnett County Police SWAT Team to provide a highly-trained and skilled tactical team as a resource for the Gwinnett County Police Department in the handling of critical incidents in order to reduce the risk of injury or loss of life to citizens, police officers, and suspects.
